

Churches for Middle East Peace

CMEP Advocacy Conference Israeli– Palestinian Peace: Hope for Things Unseen June 7-9, 2009

Join Middle East peace advocates from across the country and a range of Christian churches to: learn about opportunities for Israeli-Palestinian peacemaking in the context of broader regional dynamics and with the Obama Administration's initiative to move the peace process forward in 2009; and lobby Congress with up-to-date specific talking points designed to make your voice heard.

At the CMEP conference, church leaders, issue analysts and policy experts will provide important insights and updates and prepare conference participants to meet with elected officials.

Churches for Middle East Peace, a coalition of 22 U.S. churches and church-related organizations, is positioned to guide church members and clergy in effective advocacy grounded in the principles of our faith. CMEP will help arrange your meetings with your Representative and Senators.

LOCATION

Kellogg Conference Hotel at Gallaudet University, 800 Florida Avenue, NE
and the Lutheran Church of the Reformation,
212 E. Capitol Street

CHURCHES FOR MIDDLE EAST PEACE (CMEP) is a coalition of 22 public policy offices of national churches and agencies -- Orthodox, Catholic and Protestant. CMEP began its work in 1984 out of the conviction that the policy perspectives and long Middle East experience of our member bodies should be more widely known in the public policy arena. We therefore seek to maintain an on-going dialogue with Congress, the Administration and the diplomatic community, to advance such concerns, assessments, and advocacy positions.

Sunday evening:

Opening Program

Monday:

Plenary panels,
luncheon with
speaker, workshops,
preparation for advocacy

Evening denominational gatherings

Tuesday:

Congressional Prayer
Breakfast

Lobby Day on Capitol Hill

*For More Information: Visit
www.cme.org*

*Churches for Middle East Peace
110 Maryland Avenue, N.E.
Washington, DC 20002*

Phone: 202-543-1222

Fax: 202-543-5025

E-mail: info@cme.org